Health Requirements

Entry Requirements

- Premiums will be paid only on awards indicated by the judges' records
- Entries will be accepted and premiums paid only on breeds, varieties, and color listed under the conditions noted in the fair's premium book.
- Entries will be received until the cooping capacity is reached.
- Only properly entered specimens and specimens listed under the conditions of the fair's premium book will be accepted.
- No string exhibitors accepted.
- The "American Standard of Perfection: of the American Poultry Association and the "Bantam Standard" of the American Bantam Association will govern poultry judging.
- A bird can only compete for one prize, except as provided for in special awards.
- A judge shall not officiate in a class where he has an entry. Collusion between a judge and exhibitor will exclude from competition and awards all entries of the offending exhibitor. Exhibitor's protest relative to such exclusion must be in writing.
- A fair attendant will clean the cages and walkways.
- Entered specimens must be bona fide property of exhibitor and have been hatched in Pennsylvania.
- During the continuance of the show, all birds will be examined carefully each day. Birds showing signs of disease will be segregated and properly care for or returned to the owner at his expense.
- Substitutions will be permitted before closing date of the entries. No substitutions will be permitted after closing date of entries unless of the same breed, variety and sex.
- Birds will be handled only by the judge or authorized fair official.
- Premiums will be awarded only on birds exhibited in their proper classes.
- In the absence of a protest, which must be in writing, the decision of the judges will be final.
- The management reserves the right to reduce the number of entries from one party if the cooping facilities are exhausted.
- Entries may be made in all classes if they are listed in the official standards for chickens and bantams. Breed must be named on entry list, and section numbers must be indicated on entries.
- Cages will be provided by Fair Association.

- Each exhibitor limited to 2 entries per class; 40 birds per exhibitor; no entries accepted in farm names
- Litter provided
- Health papers must accompany entries.
- Exhibitors are to feed and water their own birds daily.
- Exhibitors must have 10 or more birds to receive Exhibitor Wrist band.
